

Peter Döhle
Schiffahrts-KG

Container Operator (m/f/d)

The PETER DÖHLE Schiffahrts-KG is a provider of global maritime services with roots in Hamburg and home ports all over the world. We see ourselves as a company group rich in tradition yet future-oriented, providing tailor-made solutions for the entire shipping industry. To support our Container Operations at the next possible time, we are looking for a Container Operator (m/f/d).

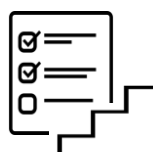

Your tasks and responsibilities:

- Central point of contact in all operational matters for captains, ship management, third-party clients and charterers
- Handling the daily operational tasks of the vessels being on T/C or awaiting a new employment
- Support concerning the content of the charter party as well as the practical implementation of the clauses in the daily operational activities
- Representing the interests of the shipowner and charterer including the development of own solutions
- Processing delivery into a charter including charter instructions respectively redelivery from a charter in cooperation with all parties involved
- Checking hire statements and handling of owners' expenses in close cooperation with the accounting department

Preferable qualifications and requirements:

- Successfully completed apprenticeship as shipping merchant in tramp shipping
- Professional experience as an Operator or in a comparable position
- Organisational talent and a distinct solution orientation
- Strong and effective communication skills with fluency in English and preferably German
- Well-founded user knowledge in MS Office and ERP systems
- Readiness for constant availability

What we offer you:

a challenging and varied job with a lot of (personal) responsibility

a pleasant working atmosphere in a highly motivated, dynamic team as well as individual perspectives for further development

an exclusive working environment at the Elbe with an in-house fitness area and company restaurant

Would you like to make a difference with us?

We are looking forward to receiving your application via email including your possible entry date and your salary expectation.

Please send your documents to office-jobs@doehle.de.